LETTERS READ AT RED
INQUIRY SHOW DESIRE OF OFFICIAL TO HELP

Acting Immigration Officer Uhl Admits Privileges Had Been Granted During Regime of Commissioner Howe—Alleged Plan Was Serious.

New York, Nov. 27.—At the hearing conducted by the house immigration committee, letters were read showing a sympathetic attitude on the part of Frederick C. Howe, formerly commissioner of immigration at Ellis Island, toward radicals who had been ordered deported.

The letters were produced after testimony by Byron H. Uhl, now acting commissioner at the island, that conditions under Howe's regime tended to make the island a "forum of Bolshevism," a bawdy house and a gambling house.

Mr. Uhl admitted that privileges had been granted during the regime of Commissioner Howe which, if unchecked, might have led to the establishment of a "forum of Bolshevism" on the island.

The correspondence taken by the committee from files at the island, included letters written by Howe to George Andrychew, a radical, whose deportation order was canceled; Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor; one received by him from Emma Goldman and one from Dante Barton, vice chairman of the committee on industrial relations, to Miss Helen Marot, in care of The Masses, a radical New York publication.

Miss Goldman urged Howe not to send "to sure death" in France Joseph Goldberg, a white slave and a friend of defendants in Los Angeles dynamiting cases. Official records showed Goldberg had been allowed to go to Spain at his own expense, after being ordered deported.

Andrychew, an I. W. W. rioter, wrote Howe upon cancellation of an order of deportation: "I have no words to thank you for your appreciation and support. Yours as ever for the emancipation of mankind."

In reply Howe wrote: "I was immensely gratified to receive your letter advising me that Acting Secretary Denmore had canceled your order for deportation."

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn wrote Howe in regard to Andrychew: "I count you among the first to see that this young rebel is not sent to certain death." Howe replied with a formal review of the case and added the postscript: "This is a very official letter, I know."

Howe wrote to Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, in regard to the Andrychew case: "The young man is a clean, wholesome, nice-looking fellow, and Mrs. Cram has telephoned me several times about him."

Mr. Uhl testified that in departmental matters Howe had gone over the head of his superior, Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration, and dealt with officials of the department of labor. Uhl now deals with Caminetti, he testified.

While the committee was conducting its inquiry into the former administration a hunger strike and a silence strike by more than three score radicals at the island continued. The committee announced that some of the radicals would be brought before it for examination Friday, by force if necessary.

Mr. Howe formerly resided in Cleveland and was at one time a member of the Ohio legislature.

INVITE POMERENE
AND COX FOR BIG
SPREAD IN CAPITOL

Washington, Nov. 27.—Democratic presidential possibilities will be guests of the Democratic national committee at a banquet in the Willard hotel here on the night of Jan. 8. The list of guests as far as it has been made out includes: Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio, William G. McAdoo of New York, A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, Champ Clark of Missouri, Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, Gilbert N. Hitchcock of Nebraska, Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, John J. Cornwell, governor of West Virginia, John W. Davis of West Virginia, ambassador to England, and Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana.

Governor of Dalmatia Admiral Enrico Millo, who has acted as governor of Dalmatia as well as commander of the occupation forces in that country, has resigned the former office.

HINES' PROPOSAL
ON RAIL ISSUE
NOT ACCEPTED

Cleveland, Nov. 27.—No action looking toward a railroad strike by the four railroad brotherhoods was taken by the 500 general chairmen meeting here to act on Director General of Railroads Hines' offer of time and one-half for slow freight service, and no vote was taken on the proposition, although a motion to vote on it was adopted.

When the conference reassembled the director general's offer was again taken up. Many amendments were offered by the delegates and further requests were sent to Washington for explanation of its workings in connection with the elimination of arbitration and allowances, as stipulated by the director general.

It was learned from an authoritative source that the delegates are opposed to accepting the proposition if all the arbitrations and allowances existing in many schedules at present are eliminated, figuring that the loss of these arbitrations and allowances is nearly equal to the amount gained by the overtime offer.

Many delegates claim the members of the four brotherhoods have been discriminated against, it was said, in the recent granting of increased wages to other railroad employees.

THANKSGIVING
DAY OF SPECIAL
IMPORT TODAY

Thanksgivings have come and gone, but never in the history of these United States has this holiday been celebrated with more significance than this year.

The war has raised Thanksgiving Day from a mere holiday when people feast on good things and seek the pleasure ways of the day to a day of holier meaning. Today, American people celebrated a Thanksgiving of peace and reunion of families long separated by the war.

Thanksgiving was inaugurated in 1621 by the sedate Puritan fathers and thus is one of the first public holidays observed in this country. The next Thanksgiving was held in July 1623 and in 1677 the earliest Thanksgiving proclamation was issued in Massachusetts.

In 1795 George Washington issued the first presidential proclamation, the holiday having spread from Massachusetts to the other colonies. Thus it became a national custom to observe Thanksgiving—a day to feast and give thanks for the blessings received during the year.

Many a home that boasted a khaki clad boy in the service of his country last Thanksgiving is happy today in a reunion, that represents how precious the peace that this country now enjoys. There will be many a little reunion dinner, and many a happy family that will come to greater appreciation of the day instituted long ago by the Puritans, because of the return of some soldier boy.

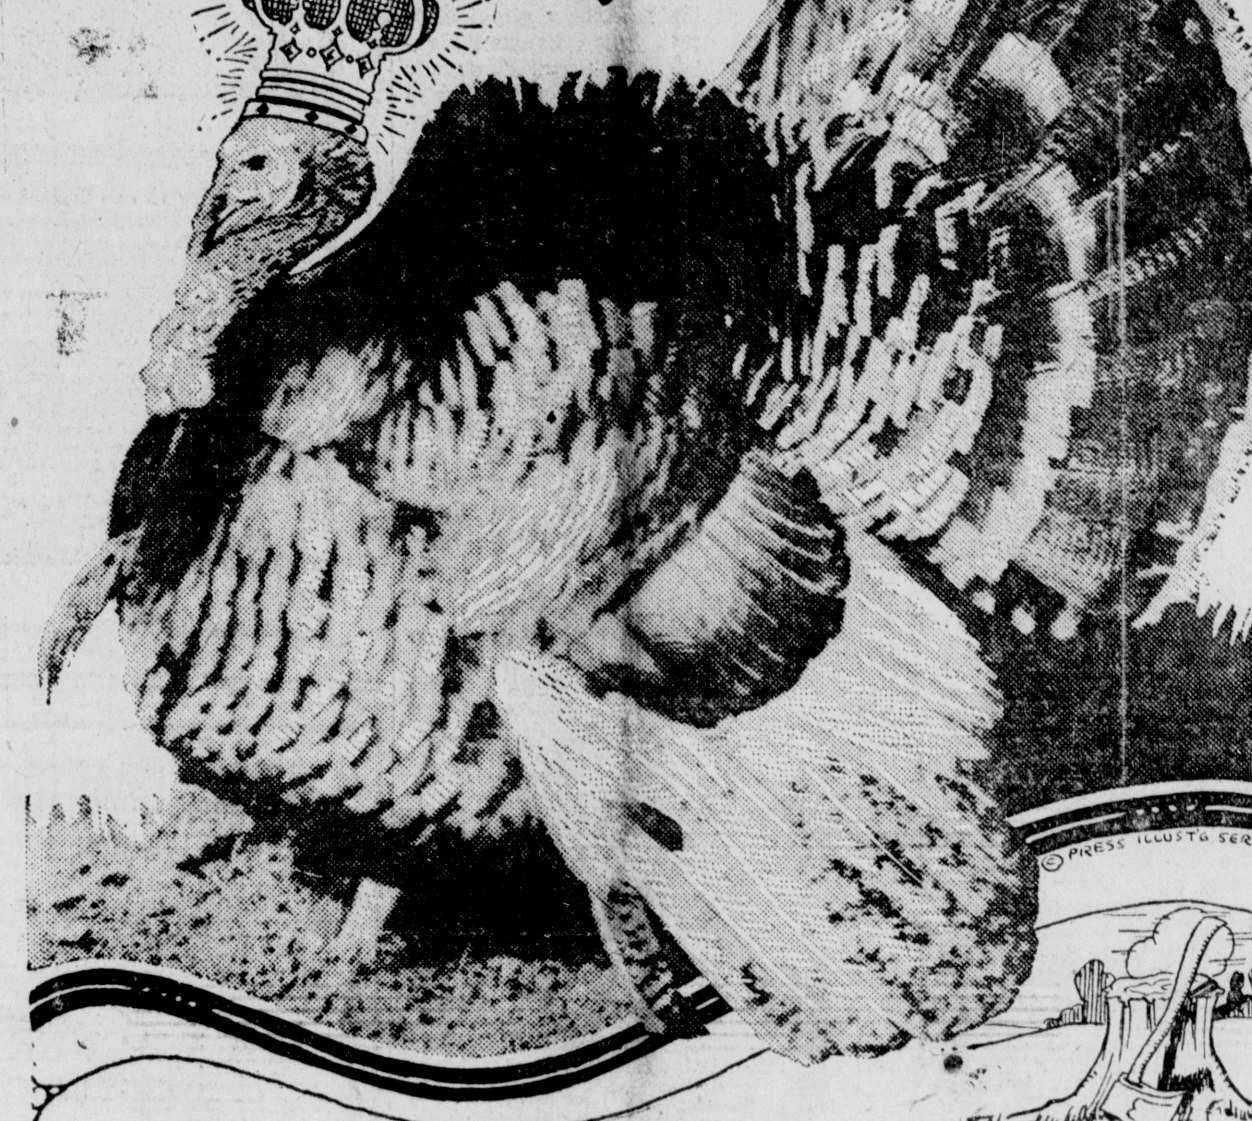

Business was suspended and Xenia gave itself over to the celebration of the day. All the good things that go to make up the Thanksgiving dinner were groaning on Thanksgiving Day tables at noon.

And in the K. of P. hall the Social Service League fed hungry mouths of poor children in order that it be a real Thanksgiving Day.

J. T. HIBBERT'S CAR
STOLEN LAST NIGHT

James T. Hibbert, manager of the Bijou theater, reported to police Wednesday night that his automobile, a Dixie Flyer touring car, had been stolen from in front of the theater on Green street.

The car was taken some time between the hours of nine and ten o'clock while Mr. Hibbert was in the theater and at a time when the street was well lighted. The car was painted brewster green and was well equipped.

Bride Goeth Before
a FallGENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETS MONDAY TO CLEAN UP UNFINISHED WORK;
TAXATION AND PROHIBITION UP

Columbus, Nov. 27.—The general assembly reconvenes next Monday to clean up the work left unfinished last June.

Taxation and prohibition enforcement will be two big problems before the solons for solution. The taxation committee has decided not to include horse-drawn vehicles and steam traction engines in the graduated auto tax bill, as demanded by some auto clubs. If it decides later to recommend that they be taxed, it will be by a separate measure, it is said. The committee expects to make its report to the legislature Tuesday. It hopes to throw the auto tax law in the hopper that day. The income tax, school relief and debt-limitation proposals are to follow as quickly as possible.

The tentative draft of the auto bill has been amended so as to authorize the secretary of state to deputize local auto clubs to distribute license tags as they do at present. All county auditors also are to be distributors. Several dry members in the assembly say they hope the league will consent to what they wanted last winter—a simple, brief penal section, embodying practically the language of the prohibition amendment to the constitution.

GAVE AGED MAN A LIFT;
HE WILLS HER $30,000

Warren, O., Nov. 27.—Several months ago, while driving her car from Cortland to Warren, Mrs. Gertrude Leiby overtook an aged pedestrian and invited him to ride.

When the city was reached the way-farer, thanked Mrs. Leiby profusely and the incident was forgotten. Recently Mrs. Leiby was notified that J. H. Smith, who died at Decatur, Ill., had left her $30,000. Inquiry developed the fact that Smith was her passenger and it was his manner of repaying the kindness.

MCADOO REPLIES TO
OPERATORS IN DEFENSE OF WILSON PROPOSAL

New York, Nov. 27.—William G. McAdoo continued his debate with the coal operators concerning miners' wages and operators' profits. In a telegram to T. T. Brewster, representing the operators in Washington, McAdoo said:

"The statement in your telegram that the average margin per ton on all coal mined in 1918 was 46 cents has no bearing upon the issue. These averages are used as convenient smoke screens to obscure the facts. The question is what were the profits on the capital employed by the mine owners, regardless of the average profit that may have been earned on each ton of coal? Whatever the margin per ton was, if it resulted in excessive profits then clearly the public should not be made to pay higher prices and the mine owners should absorb the increase to the men."

"I am convinced the increased wages proposed by Secretary Wilson are just and reasonable because they equalize the miners' wages with the present increased cost of living. I ignore the offensive tone of your telegram, because neither personalities nor questioning of my motive should be permitted to obscure the issue."

ASLEEP, FALLS FROM WINDOW.

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 27.—While walking in his sleep George Haylett fell from a second-story window. The fall only awakened him and, clad in his nightclothes, he walked up to the desk and asked for another key to get into his room.

LANSING CLAIMS
NO KNOWLEDGE OF
MEXICAN REPLY

Washington, Nov. 27.—Secretary of State Lansing knew nothing of the Mexican reply to the United States demand for the release of Consular Agent Jenkins when communicated with at his home this morning. "I know nothing about it," he said. "The reply might be received at the State department today but I do not know."

Mexico City, Nov. 27.—Declaring there is "no legal foundation nor principle of international law" upon which the United States bases its demand for the immediate release of William O. Jenkins, United States consular agent at Puebla, the Mexican government, through Hilario Medina, undersecretary of foreign relations, stated it was impossible to accede to the request of the American state department. It is asserted that the executive committee can not under Mexican law intervene at this moment in an affair which is strictly in the hands of state courts. It is declared the imprisonment of Mr. Jenkins was neither unjustified nor arbitrary and that Mr. Jenkins is preventing his own freedom by refusing to give bail.

SEPARATED TEN YEARS FAMILY IS FINALLY UNITED

Separated ten years, the four children of Clinton Pennington, who died in Xenia, will soon be reunited through the efforts of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stoops of the Jamestown pike.

An item in a Bellefontaine newspaper which sought to locate Prudence Pennington, came to the notice of pretty 16-year-old Harriet Lucile Fenn, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Fenn. "That was my name when I was a baby," she remarked, "I am going to answer that."

As a result of her letter, Mr. Stoops went to Bellefontaine yesterday, definitely established her identity and invited the young girl to attend a family reunion which is being held today at the Stoops home. Previous arrangements made it impossible for the girl to come to Xenia for Thanksgiving, but a future meeting with her sister and two brothers will be held at the Stoops home.

The Pennington children were placed in the Clinton county children's home following the death of their father. Eventually all found homes with private families, and the children's home authorities were able to tell only the towns to which they went. Mr. and Mrs. Stoops adopted the sister Sarah, nine years ago. The boys Harold and Stephen went to Virginia and Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Stoops located them sometime ago and the boys came to Xenia. They are now working in Dayton. They are 18 and 20 years of age. Parker Pennington of Orient Hill is the children's grandfather.

Fuel Administrator Also Suggests Maintenance of Federal Control and Says Cabinet Has Approved Basis as Sound and Right.

LIQUOR IS SOLD
OPENLY IN SPOTS
IN NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, Nov. 27.—Whisky, beer, wines and in fact every drink usually found in the old days in a well-stocked bar were sold openly over the counter in New Orleans after Federal Judge Foster had declared wartime prohibition unconstitutional.

Less than an hour after Judge Foster had enjoined federal authorities from interfering with the sale of bonded whiskies in compliance with the petition of the Herman Leiser Liquor company, barrooms were serving liquor in steadily varied assortments. Mixed drinks were unobtainable because of the rush for "straight liquor." Later, however, it was possible to obtain practically all of the widely known drinks for many years popular to New Orleans.

Judge Foster in granting the injunction ruled that the world war came to an official end when congress adjourned recently without rejecting the peace treaty with Germany. He maintained that when President Wilson vetoed the Volstead wartime prohibition enforcement bill Oct. 28 the president declared the army and navy forces demobilized. Judge Foster formerly held that 2.75 per cent beer was nonintoxicating.

Above the enthusiasm of liquor dealers, however, loomed the warning of the United States district attorney and the internal revenue collector that a strict record was being kept of liquor selling, and that should the supreme court of the United States declare the wartime prohibition act constitutional prosecutions would be instituted.

MURDER SUSPECT IS UNABLE TO ACCOUNT FOR HIS ACTIONS

Norwalk, O., Nov. 27.—Charles Rehfeld, 42, was arrested by a posse of citizens who had been hunting for the slayer of Dr. Horace A. Benson, 60. Police say Rehfeld was found hiding in a barn, and that he was armed with a revolver and a rifle, but he offered no resistance. Benson was shot while in the cellar of his home. He had been active in the fight against pro-Germanism and it was believed Rehfeld held the dentist to blame for his arrest.

Police say they have doubts of the prisoner's sanity. Rehfeld, they stated, told no coherent story of the killing. He said he had been "ordered" to commit the deed, according to the police, but he could not tell who gave him the "order."

HOME RULE BILL IS READY FOR ACTION

London, Nov. 27.—A new home rule bill setting up two parliaments in Ireland, with a council or senate of 40 to be chosen by the two, will be introduced in parliament within the next two weeks.

Daily sessions are being held by the cabinet committee in charge of the measure, the subject under discussion at present being finance, which is in charge of a subcommittee under the chairmanship of J. S. Foster, Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer. Control of customs has always been a point of sharpest difference, when other home rule schemes have been debated, and was one of the rocks upon which the Irish convention was shipwrecked. Control of police is another knotty point. The attitude of Unionist leaders shows that Ulster is tending toward conciliation. Final word, however, does not rest with parliament, but with the Sinn Fein party. If that organization pursues its policy of refusing recognition of any British law this British-planned Irish parliament may come to nothing, since the Sinn Fein polled a two-thirds majority of the Irish votes at the last election.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Fuel Administrator Garfield proposed to operators' and miners' wage scale committees a wage advance of 14 per cent for all mine workers, maintenance of government control over coal prices and no increase in prices at this time.

Declaring that Secretary Wilson, acting as the "authorized agent of the cabinet and of President Wilson," had offered an increase of 31.6 per cent, John L. Lewis, acting president of the mine workers, asked if the government intended to "repudiate the acts of Secretary Wilson."

Dr. Garfield replied that Mr. Wilson made his proposals as mediator to facilitate negotiations and that Mr. Wilson told him it was the duty of the fuel administrator to fix prices and that it was not the function of the secretary of labor. "The cabinet has decided that the basis I have suggested is sound and right," Dr. Garfield said.

Dr. Garfield declared that the miners, without the proposed increase of 14 per cent, were better off than other classes of employment. A permanent body, with "purely advisory powers, consisting of the secretary of the interior as chairman, and of an equal number of representatives of operators and mine workers, was recommended by Dr. Garfield. This board would continue to apply the principles announced by the fuel administrator to unsettled questions, wages and profits and living conditions.

In suggesting the 14 per cent increase Dr. Garfield said he had taken the figures of the bureau of labor statistics for both cost of living and for the weighted average of wage increases. According to these figures the cost of living has risen 79.8 per cent since 1913, and the amount necessary to bring the average wages of mine workers up to this point at the present time is 14 per cent, Garfield said.

MINERS WON'T ACCEPT

Openly Declare the Garfield Wage Scale is Insulting.

Washington, Nov. 27.—John J. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, announced that the miners would not accept the Garfield proposal.

After a three-hour conference, at which representatives of the miners openly declared the new scale was "insulting" and sharply questioned Dr. Garfield, the subscale committee, composed of miners and operators, met to consider the settlement plan and quickly adjourned.

The miners' refusal to accept, while not announced to Dr. Garfield, was taken by the operators to be definite. Thomas Brewster, chairman of the Coal Operators' association, declared the Garfield 14 per cent statement formally eliminated Secretary Wilson's proposal for a 31 per cent increase.

FEAR BALKAN WAR
ON ACCOUNT OF ITALY

Further Aggression on Part of D'Annunzio Must Be Restrained.

London, Nov. 27.—War in the Balkans is inevitable if Gabrielle d'Annunzio attempts to occupy Spalato, according to opinion in British government circles. Advice here indicates the Italian government is doing its utmost to restrain the poet-aviator from further aggression, but that it is faced with a serious situation at home.

The supreme council in Paris also is ready to reach a decision over the Fiume controversy before its adjournment early in December, according to semi-official statements.

Some British officials are confident the Italian government eventually will weather the storm which apparently is brewing.

Dr. Charles Stanger, the present minister from Czechoslovakia, has been transferred to Peking, China. Masaryk has been in this country before, having spent six years here.

Thanksgiving Day, Expression of Thanks.

BY CHARLES P. PROUDFIT.

Thanksgiving day would be worth while if it did nothing else than to challenge our adolescent faculty of gratitude.

We are chronically complacent in our egotism; have frequent attacks of religion, and periodic spasms of the fear of God.

But our mental outgo is rarely along the trunk line of gratitude to the Giver of every good and perfect gift. Full orbed nature needs not only a stimulus to gratitude but a personal objective as well. It is not enough to say "Thank Goodness" but "Thank God. Nor does it suffice to say "I thank my luck stars," but "I rejoice in the Star of Bethlehem." Duty is hardly ended by declaring "I'm a lucky dog," but "I am a creature of divine providence."

Some are seeking to unite Armistice Day with Thanksgiving Day in the economy of time. May it never be. The former is specific, the latter general. Armistice Day covers one octave of human history. But Thanksgiving Day sweeps the whole keyboard of appreciation and shakes the surroundings with symmetrical expression of thanks.

DONNELLY AND MASON WINNERS IN TOURNEY ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

In a closely matched contest in the fourth round of the billiard tournament at the Arcade billiard hall Wednesday evening, Howard Donnelly nipped Lloyd Mason, by 100 points to 81.

Both contestants were rated at 100 billiards and the start was close and exciting the contenders running neck and neck. Mr. Donnelly began to draw away from his opponent later in the game however, and finished the set in 74 innings, leading by the margin of 19 points.

Charles Gretsinger furnished some excitement for the crowd on hands when he engineered a spurt in the final moments, but fell short of his goal and lost to M. A. Yeager, 85 to 69. Mr. Gretsinger was rated at 90 and his opponent at 85, the latter going out in 63 innings. The winner obtained a comfortable lead which was threatened by his opponent who started his spurt too late in the contest however, and fell short of his mark. The schedule was arranged to take on these four players, when the players booked for Wednesday night failed to show up.

On Thanksgiving night Ray Johnson and Karl Buck and Karl Bloom and Harold Owens will meet.

BRITISH BRIDES-TO-BE LIKE STATE DOWER IDEA

London, Nov. 27.—Since a bill has come before the Uruguay congress for the State to give a lump sum wedding present to brides, British beauties with matrimonial prospects are declaring: "It's a splendid idea." Fables In Slang

Once upon a time a Bolshevikki dodging citizen, having decided to pass up the frisky sardine as a medium of sustenance, set that part of his anatomy from the ears upon a desire to carve the proverbial bird on the well-known groaning Thanksgiving table.

Having hooked the family heirloom, a six cylinder rare wind, in his effort to raise the berries to pass to the cavernous middleman, he negotiated a touch with a respectable neighbor who was openly known to have cashed in on an endowment policy but a short time hence.

The unsuspecting boss, having but recently issued a chattel mortgage for a microscopic steak, flooded the husbandman's treasury with another donation in the shape of a water advance. Thus fortified against the high demands for rare fowls, he sought out the poultry pirate and laid his store of wealth at his feet.

Shining a set of 14 karat gold bridges in the limelight as he spread his facial anatomy into a grin, he strutted firesideward. However, his other and better half, whose ideas of modern economy consisted of purchasing a just too beautiful foulard for something like 51 cents less than $85 met him at the threshold, with the stern optic and the rigid shoulder.

Having delivered herself of an autobiography of economy from the time Nero saved his violin from burning Aome, she permitted him to place his hard-earned gobbler in the family ice-bill creator.

Moral—Do not overstep the bounds of the family purse strings without at first counting in the family boss.

HACKBERRY SEEDS SPROUTS IN SMALL BOYS' EAR

Klondike, Texas, Nov. 27.—Ever hear of a hackberry seed sprouting in a boy's ear and trying to grow a real tree? Well, such things happen. Two years ago the nine-year-old son of J. R. Moore, a farmer near here, while eating hackberries in a tree on the Moore farm got one of the big berries in his ear. In a short time the seed sprouted and the lad began to have trouble with his ear. A specialist called found that the sprout and the seed while decayed had ruined the hearing in that ear. The rotted part of the seed and sprout were removed.

ADVOCATES UNIVERSAL HIGH SCHOOL SYSTEM

Delaware, O., Nov. 27.—Establishment of a universal high school system throughout the United States in which the age limit for compulsory attendance would be eighteen years instead of fourteen, was recommended by Dr. Walter Athearn, of Boston University, in an address at Ohio Wesleyan University here.

"In order to bring about a socialization of the citizenship of this country, which cannot be obtained in the grade schools, the United States must follow the step taken by England and France, which already have such a system," declared Dr. Athearn, discussing the subject, "Tendencies in American Education."

"Increasing the age limit for attendance at high schools would not mean that the student would not be able to do some work outside of school hours.

"There are 1,500,000 pupils now enrolled in the high schools of the country and 3,500,000 of high school age in the industries."

Preference was given to universal physical training by Dr. Athearn over universal military training.

GOOD-BYE, WEAK NERVES!

"Nothing wrong but my nerves." We hear it everywhere. Nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken arm or leg than a shattered, run-down nervous system.

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells of all their strength and vitality; then come the sleepless nights, poor blood, nervousness, worry, and fear, that go with a rundown nervous system.

In cases of this kind, Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen and build up the phosphate-hungry nerve centers. It takes hold right from the start.

The way the majority of people "come back" is remarkable. You can almost see their nerves grow strong, steady and peaceful. Their eyes sparkle, their cheeks are filled out, and flushed with the healthy, ruddy glow that only pure, red, ironized blood can give, and their whole system is alive with youth, energy and good spirits.

Phosphated Iron will do all this for old or young if they will give it a chance. Get a box today and watch it build you up.

Streetscar Deadlock Unbroken.

Toledo, Nov. 27.—Unable to break the deadlock over a number of issues, the streetscar conference, in which city and company officials have been engaged several days without results, was adjourned, pending action expected to be taken in United States district court tomorrow, when it is believed some means will be devised whereby streetscar service, suspended since Nov. 8, will be resumed.

Curtailed Production Blamed.

Findlay, O., Nov. 27.—Curtailed production is responsible in the main for the high cost of living, the Hancock county grand jury reported to the common pleas court. However, in the case of some commodities, local retail prices are higher than the circumstances warrant, the report said. Restriction of purchases "as a patriotic duty" was urged, and consumption of luxuries was scored.

Woman Strangled by Wires.

Akron, O., Nov. 27.—Annette E. Zinkham, an assistant in a physician's office, met death in an unusual manner. While leaning forward in a chair to answer a telephone call she slipped and fell to the floor, her head becoming entangled in the telephone wires. Other persons in the office went to the girl's assistance, but before they could loosen the cords from around her neck she was dead.

Health Board Lacks Funds.

Newark, O., Nov. 27.—The board of health of Newark is in a very deplorable condition, according to Dr. Knauss. He said that at the end of 1918 the board had an indebtedness of $1,000, the board of health does not have a fumigator and no money with which to purchase any, and three families are held in quarantine on this account.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c.

GOOD-BYE, WEAK NERVES!

"Nothing wrong but my nerves." We hear it everywhere. Nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken arm or leg than a shattered, run-down nervous system.

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells of all their strength and vitality; then come the sleepless nights, poor blood, nervousness, worry, and fear, that go with a rundown nervous system.

In cases of this kind, Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen and build up the phosphate-hungry nerve centers. It takes hold right from the start.

The way the majority of people "come back" is remarkable. You can almost see their nerves grow strong, steady and peaceful. Their eyes sparkle, their cheeks are filled out, and flushed with the healthy, ruddy glow that only pure, red, ironized blood can give, and their whole system is alive with youth, energy and good spirits.

HUDNUTS Quickmush It's Great!

Builds Strong Bodies

Here's a food you can serve every day. The family will never tire of it.

Puts muscle on delicate little bodies—builds sturdy constitutions. Men who are "big eaters" say it's the most flavorful, tempting, satisfying food they ever tasted. Invalids and folks on a diet thrive on it.

Quickmush is rich in food values, very easily digested.

Serve Quickmush cereal every day for breakfast. Other "hasty-tasty" recipes for lunch and dinner—try them.

Try these Delicious Dishes for Breakfast, Lunch or Dinner

For rich creamy cereal, stir one cup of Quickmush into five cups of cold water, salted to taste. Boil ten minutes and serve piping hot with cream and sugar.

One cupful of Quickmush makes enough cereal for five people.

For Fried Quickmush, put leftover cereal in a mold. When cold, slice and fry to a crisp brown. Serve with butter and syrup.

These are typical of the many economical "Hasty-Tasty" dishes that can be prepared with Quickmush.

"WOODLAND SINGERS" AT ROSS SCHOOL SAT.

The second number of the Ross Township Lecture Course will be given at the school auditorium, November 29th, Saturday night, at 7:30 o'clock. The Woodland Singers, a male quartet of national reputation will give the entertainment. They are one of the highest paid companies on the Redpath circuit and are recognized as one of the best male quartets on the Lyceum platform today. Their program is out of the ordinary in that it is given in the form of a connected story. Their numbers include such favorites as "Hunting Morn," "Mother O' Mine," "Udell the Dawn," "Gipsy Love Song," "The Mulligan Musketeers," and "Under the Stars and Stripes." In addition they also present the opening chorus from Reginald DeKoven's light opera, "Robin Hood."

HOW WONDERFULLY UNCLE SAM'S BOYS HAVE FORGED AHEAD.

The wide distribution and great increase in American wealth are shown in figures made public by Comptroller of Currency Williams, showing that the number of depositors in national banks increased 10-$49,832 in the last nine years. Individual deposits increased approximately $8,500,000,000.

The total number of depositors in national banks, excluding accounts of banks, was given as 18,240,300, or one out of every six of the nation's population. The per capita deposit was shown to be $689, a gain of $38 on the average account of the nine-year period.

Four persons received net incomes in the year of 1917 of $5,000,000 and over. The average tax paid by these four was $4,937,731.25 and their total net income was $67,252,379, according to figures made public by the bureau of internal revenue.

Ninety persons filed returns of incomes from $750,000 to $1,000,000 and paid an average tax of $249,948.30.
Sixty-seven returns reported net incomes from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000, the average tax being $360,758.

These figures are so colossal that it staggers the imagination to even contemplate them. And it seems a mortifying fact that the war brought quite a slice of this wealth. That any one should gain wealth from the death and destruction of his fellow beings, seems heathenish. "Blood money" has ever been regarded as despicable we hope that the proportion of this great wealth which may be regarded as "blood money" is small, when compared with the total.
It is calculated to make us swell with pride to think that our's is by far the richest nation, and that we have become the bankers of the world, for as the world goes, the banker is considered at the top of the pot socially.

We are so young, as ages of nations go, that we have been looked upon as a stripling, but surely we have forged ahead in our ability to "get there" financially and commercially. The reason—our grand governmental system, by which all men are equal, and the constant aim to elevate citizenship—where the poorest boy may become the leading citizen—and the absence of that European system of citizenship known by the meanest word in language—
"caste."

The greatest humbug in the world is the idea that money can make a man happy. Our richest men, like Rockefeller and Carnegie, found that out, and spent much of their time in devising ways to get rid of their wealth. And to their everlasting honor, they were able to find ways that help in the elevation and benefit of their fellow beings. How honored and beloved they are. Moral—if rich, "go thou and do likewise."

THE CRIME OF SELFISH- NESS.

Senator Lodge's counsel of selfishness if rightly understood, would be repudiated by this nation—every man and woman of us.

So far as Article X of the league covenant is concerned, his attitude is as though he should say to me when a poor man's home is burning on the edge of our town: "Why should you help? It isn't your home!" And comforted by such wisdom, I say:
"To hell with his house. I's not-thing to me. Let him put his own fire out."

But presently the fire has spread to the house next door and then across the street—and now it has spread beyond control, and looks as though the whole town would be wiped out! So I rush out, thoroughly alarmed, and urge everybody to help put the fire out. Why? Because my own home is now in danger! Such counsel of selfishness should never live to curse the soul of America!

There are some tempers wrought up by habitual selfishness to an utter insensibility of what becomes of the fortunes of their fellow creatures, as if they were not partakers of the same nature, or had no lot or connection at all with the species.

"Show me a man who would go to heaven alone, and I will show you one who will never be admitted there."

DON'T SPILL YOUR CLOTHES!
That is why they use Red Cross (Sall and All-Sinners).

CEDARVILLE COUPLE WEDS THANKSGIVING DAY.

A company of 125 guests witnessed the marriage of Miss Etchell Cresswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
George H. Cresswell to Hugh Turnbull, Jr., which took place at 12:30 Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on the Jamestown pke.

Pink and white chrysanthemums and vines decorated the living room where the service took place. A white archway decked with smilax was placed over the improvised marriage altar, and tall white standards each bearing a white wicker basket filled with pink and white chrysanthemums stood at either side of the altar.

Miss Elizabeth Climpson of Chicago, the bride's cousin, was flower girl, and wearing a white frock, she lead the bridal procession, scattering pink rose petals from a basket which she carried. Little Robert Harriman son of the Rev. and Mrs. W. P.
Harriman carried the rings for the double ring service, in a basket of flowers.

Miss Ellen Tarbox in pink georgette crepe and carrying pink roses was the attractive maid of honor.
Morton Cresswell attended the bridegroom as best man.

The bride was very lovely in her wedding robe of white satin with its lace and bead trimming. Her veil was of tulle and she carried a bou-quet of bride's roses.

The bride's pastor, the Rev. W. P.
Harriman of the Reformed Presbyterian church officiated at the service, assisted by the Rev. J. P. White of the United Presbyterian church the pastor of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull are among the best known young people of Cedarville township. Both attended Cedarville college, of which Mr. Turnbull is an alumnus. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turnbull.

Among those who came from a distance for the nuptials were: Mrs.
N. C. Climpson and three daughters of Chicago; Ralph Hofmeister of Volant, Pa.; Miss Alberta Cresswell of Monessen, Pa.; Miss Helen Cresswell of Edgerton, O.; Miss Irma Cresswell, Huston, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs.
Dwight Sterrett, Mansfield; Mrs. Elizabeth Sterrett, Columbus.

TURKEY MISSING BUT CHICKEN WILL GRACE O. S. S. O. HOME TABLES

The high cost of turkey has touched the youngsters at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home.
Because of the regal bird's flight in cost, the annual Thanksgiving dinner of "turkey and all the trimmings" will be missing at the home tables today.

Instead roast chicken will be the principal dish gracing the festive board at the noon day meal.

Fifteen dozen birds were sacrificed yesterday in anticipation of the holiday dinner. Two barrels of cranberries will furnish the sauce that will make the tender white meat, the gravy and the "dressing" more tooth-some.

Then there will be mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, and celery, and fruit and mine pie, "Oh, Boy!"

Lucid.

MADMAN DROVE TAXI THROUGH STREETS OF LONDON FOR 2 YEARS

London, Nov. 27.—How a madman drove a taxicab around London and finally knocked down and killed a woman in Old Kent road was told in the Coroner's court at Southwark. One of the doctor's who testified in the case stated that the taxicab driver had been insane for two years, although how he managed to obtain a license to drive a taxicab was not stated.

Herbert East was the driver's name and the testimony showed that one evening recently he was driving his cab along the road without lights and traveling at a very fast pace. The victim—who was seventy-three years of age—had no chance to escape the cab, which knocked her down and gave her injuries from which she very quickly died.

The man's own wife testified that he had changed very much in the past two years and that lately he had been "very strange." He had spent $6,000 in the past three months (which is somewhat of a comment upon the earnings of taximen.) Every witness told of the man's strange actions, but apparently, nobody thought it unwise that he should be allowed to continue to drive a cab.

East was found guilty of manslaughter but as he is in the lunatic

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

Peace for a Time,
Chapter CXXX.

Following my anniversary my jealousy was in abeyance. I had felt so mortified over my actions (although I flattered myself no one had probed them) that I was meekness itself.

I rode with Miss Pierce and Junior occasionally with Mrs. Gray as a companion. I visited Alice Sloane and my other friends, and they visited me. I went to the theatre or other places of amusement with Everett; and I practiced and studied religiously. Mrs. Barr still came to me twice a week. My reading with her had begun to have its effect. She had insensibly broadened me, but it had been like the change in Everett—so slowly accomplished I had not realized it was happening. Instead of resenting her presence, now felt annoyed if anything prevented my hour's reading with her. My French was also improving, and we were reading Flaubert in the original; which delighted me.

Everett was very much interested in this phase of my life—more so than was warranted, I thought, until one day he said to me, "I am delighted with your awakened interest in your reading and music. I am much older than you, Sandra. There will perhaps come a time I will no longer interest you greatly—although I shall try; then your reading, your wider knowledge will take place of what I might continue to do for you were I a younger man."

I made no reply, I could think of nothing to say. It was the first time he ever referred to the future as connected with the disparity in our ages. I wanted to be old. I now know that he longed inexpressibly to be young. The irony of it, neither satisfied, both reaching out for something to make us happy together, instead of just BEING happy and trusting each other and for our future!

There was one subject of which we never tired; Junior. Often when Everett was at home for the evening and we had no guests, we would spend the entire evening planning his future. He had been entered at Croton as soon as he was born. After that we were rather divided between Princeton, Harvard and Yale. So we would argue the merits of each, and invariably would end up by saying: "Well, we've time enough to decide that," then go on talking. WHAT we would like him to be. I wanted him to be a great lawyer. Or something of the sort. A professional man, Everett preferred he should be a business man. This too we would talk over together amiably, although we disagreed.

"The world needs good business men—educated, honest men of affairs. Since the war we have realized what a power the business man is in the world; how necessary he is. Everett said once, when I, rather snobbishly, said a professional man had a better social position."

So we spent happy hours planning for our son. But as always my peaceful frame of mind was not to last. Twice a woman had called on the telephone and asked for Everett. When I had said I was Mrs. Graham she had quickly hung up the receiver and although I tried both times to have central find out where the call was from, I had failed.

"A lady called while you were out, ma'am. She asked for Mr. Graham. Then she asked what time he came home to dinner."

"What kind of a looking woman?"

"Nice looking ma'am—dressed nice. For days I scarcely left the house so anxious was I to find out who this woman was. I had given up hope that she would telephone again or call when one night just at dinner time the phone rang. Everett was dining at the club."

"May I speak to Mr. Graham?" she asked.

"He is not at home. This is Mrs. Graham. I will give my husband any message you wish to leave."

"Thank you, but I prefer to talk to Mr. Graham," and once again I was unable to find out where the call had come from, or who had called.

Tomorrow—An Emotional Episode.

Virginia Tombstone.

The inscription, "Aliza White, weighed 300 pounds; open wide the golden gates," found upon a tombstone in a small cemetery in Virginia has a subtle humorous suggestion that provokes a smile, despite the realization that beneath the stone are buried the remains of a victim of nature's greatest calamity—death. So it is with many of the quaint and queer things that have been discovered upon tombstones in obscure and deserted corners of old churchyards the world over.—Exchange.

FAWCETT LANGDON NUPTIALS.

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening, November 19, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Langdon, of Orchard Lake, Mich., when their daughter, Lena Fawcett, was united in marriage to Addison F. Fawcett, of Xenia, Ohio. The wedding service was performed by Rev. Milligan, of Pontiac, and the bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Foster Fawcett. The wedding march was played by Miss Nita Dickie while the bride party took their places before an altar decorated with carnations and ferns. The bride was attired in a gown of white georgette and satin and carried a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums. The bride's maid wore a gown of white georgette and carried yellow chrysanthemums. A three course supper was served to sixty-three guests.

ACADEMY JUNIORS HAVE MERRY EVENING.

Juniors of Antioch Academy, had a merry time Saturday evening when they were entertained at the home of "Jack" Drake three miles west of Yellow Springs. The affair was a class surprise, the entertainment committee making the arrangements secretly. After meeting at the home of Miss Mildred Stewart, they were taken to the Drake home by automobile. The young folks popped corn and made pop corn balls. Punch and cake were served. In the party were Misses Ruth Shoup, Edna Huston, Lucile Corry, Alene Mussler, Alice Gaeher, Margaret Kraute, Mildred Steward, Messrs. Burns Weston, Merrill Dawson, Clyde Dawson, Edear Little, Jack Drake, Mr. and Mrs. William Dawson chaperoned the party.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE OF APPROACHING MARRIAGE.

A delightful musical program by Mrs. Foster Clemmer and Miss Agnes Hornick added much to the pleasure of the afternoon. The hostesses served a salad, hot rolls and coffee.

FOODY POST NO. 95 TO MEET HERE MONDAY

Members of Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95, American Legion, will meet in the Assembly room of the court house Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Post Commander C. L. Darlington, who was a delegate from the state executive committee to the national convention and Adjutant Omer Tate, delegate from this district, will give a report of the convention.

Some of the business of the national convective to be explained to local members at this time will be the bonus question, the War Risk Insurance question, the Woman's Auxiliary, which will be organized soon and other questions that were discussed at Minneapolis.

This is the first meeting of Foody Post for some time and a good attendance is urged.

Children's Ailments

DISORDERS of the stomach and constipation are the most common diseases of children. To correct them you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets. One tablet at bed time will do the work and will make your child bright and cheerful the following morning. Do not punish your children by giving them castor oil. Chamberlain's Tablets are better and more pleasant to take.

DRUGGISTS CALL BEGY'S MUSTARINE TRIPLE EXTRACT OF HEAT

But It's Non-Blistering Heat and It Won't Hurt the Tenderest Skin

Grandmother's old-fashioned mustard plaster did the work all right, ached in ten minutes—many times it but it blistered the skin and was a five.

Begy's Mustarine is the original mustard prescription that has made grandmothers mustard plaster but a relic of bygone days.

It's ten times better, cleaner and can not blister; it is made of true, honest yellow mustard combined with other well known destroyers of pain and a box does the work of fifty mustard plasters.

Why suffer for days using plasters or continuously rubbing on liniment when one application of Begy's Mustarine will take out soreness in chest or any part of the body and will limber up stiff neck or rusty joints. It banishes backache, toothache, head

THANKSGIVING DAY FEASTS OF YEARS AGO RECALLED BY XENIAN

Fresh game, as it came from the hills and forests around Xenia, was the piece de resistance at many an old time Thanksgiving banquet, according to Hal Matthews, well-known Xenian.

According to Mr. Matthews it was the custom of the young sportsmen of the "before the war" period to hunt on the morning of the "turkey day" and the variety and the amount of their game was bounded only by their taste in the matter and how much they needed or could carry.

In the evening following the day's hunt, the nimrods held an immense banquet which in those days was looked forward to like the Elk's Ball in later years and more recently the annual minstrel shows. Three dollars a couple was charged although the game for the affair was furnished by the young hunters themselves.

Everything edible in the fowl and game line filled the boards at these banquets which were largely attended by the youthful swains of old Xenia.

Of the young men who participated in those Thanksgiving Day hunts and in the evening gathered round the feast board they marked the grand climax of the hunting season, only three now are living.

They are Frank Stark of Dayton, Russell Williams of New York City, and Mr. Matthews of this city, who is still hale and hearty and still enjoys a good fishing trip at least.

DR. E. A. PETERSON GETS APPOINTMENT WITH AMERICAN RED CROSS

Dr. Ervin A. Peterson, of Cleveland, former Xenian, has been appointed director of the executive department of the American Red Cross, and assigned on the staff of the national director general at Washington. He is now in that city having taken up his new work.

Dr. Peterson was for years identified with social hygiene work in Cleveland. He returned home two months Red Cross tuberculosis unit. His work ago after service in Italy with the in Washington will consist in conserving and directing the great social health energy of the Red Cross into peace time pursuits.

Dr. Peterson was graduated from the medical school at Western Reserve University in 1910. He at once entered social hygiene work as head worker of the Goodrich Social Settlement House. In 1913 he was director of school and city playgrounds in Cleveland. Before going overseas he was director of public school medical inspection in that city. He is a member of the Cleveland Academy of Medicine and the American Medical Association, a charter member of the City Club and a member of the University Club. He is a nephew of Mrs. Albert Tresslar, of the Springfield pike.

HI SCHOOL NOTES

Several members of the faculty will spend the Thanksgiving vacation at their homes. School was dismissed Wednesday afternoon and will not convene until Monday morning. This gives the teachers who live at a distance a chance to make the trip and have time to visit.

Miss McBane left Wednesday afternoon for Pittsburgh, where she will visit her brother.

Miss Fishburn left for her home at Columbus, O., Wednesday afternoon. Miss Junk went to Chillicothe where she will spend her vacation at her home and with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Trumbull went to Mr. Trumbull's home at Bell Center, O.

Miss Armstrong will remain at home and visit friends in Dayton, Friday.

Mr. Hiers went to Oxford Wednesday and from there will go to his home at Connersville. He will probably attend the Miami-Cincinnati game at Cincinnati on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pendry went to Mr. Pendry's home at Bowersville.

Mr. Craig will accompany a number of students to a swimming expedition at the Dayton Y. M. C. A. Friday He will join Mr. Hiers at Oxford on Saturday and spend the rest of the time there.

Miss Coffin left for her home at Marblehead Wednesday afternoon and will spend her vacation at that place.

The other teachers will remain at their homes in or near Xenia.

Mr. Watson, of the Theological Seminary taught the mathematics classes Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Barre was called out of town by the death of a relative and Mr. Pendry was fortunate in securing a capable substitute.

A Thanksgiving assembly was held in the high school Wednesday morning. The program was arranged by Miss Coffin and Louise Baldwin acted as chairman. She announced that the assembly was held on account of the proximity of Thanksgiving. The first thing on the program was a musical selection and Miss Haynes lead the school in "Beautiful Ohio" and followed it with "Dar Old Pal of Mine."

Mr. Watson, a student of the Theological Seminary who is teaching during the absence of Mr. Barre, read a scripture lesson, taking it from the Psalms.

Pauline McFadden, Imogene Mullen, Eva Arnold, Gladys Shadrach, Margaret Prugh, Mary Wheeler, Dewitt Holland, Walker Taylor, Richard Sayre and Wilbur Thornhill sang a Lullaby which was very effective if not harmonious.

Margaret Davis gave a reading concerning a Thanksgiving goose which was received with much laughter and applause.

Grace Lyle, a talented young violinist, played a well received and pleasing solo "Up in a Swing."

Mary Wheeler rendered a piano solo followed by two selections on Thanksgiving by Miss Elwell's English classes.

The final number was the singing of "There's a Long Long Trail" by the entire school.

ENGLISH RACE SLOWLY UNDERGOING CHANGE

London, Nov. 27.—The English race is slowly undergoing a change in type, according to Professor Parsons, professor of anatomy at St. Thomas' Hospital. He has measured a considerable number of English and German faces and has found that the general difference in these measurements amounted to 15 per cent.

A study of the old armor of the Tower of London shows that present day British soldiers could not squeeze into the ancient war gear.

The English woman, it is said, has developed in size since her grandmother's day, owing to larger participation in outdoor sports and more exercise.

DON'T DISREGARD A COLD

A neglected cold may develop into most serious sickness. The influenza and pneumonia that swept the country a year ago were preceded by an epidemic of colds. Foley's Honey and Tar will check a cold if taken in time. It loosens phlegm and mucous, clears air passages, eases hoarseness, stops tickling throat. Sayre & Hemphill.

SCIENTISTS IDENTIFY DEER-FLY DISEASE

Washington, Nov. 27.—Sleeping sickness is no longer the last word in unusual ailments. It has a rival. That rival is deer-fly fever. It isn't as dangerous as the sleeping variety, but it derives much prestige from the mystery which has surrounded its outbreaks.

Public health officers have at last traced deer-fly fever, however, and have turned on the light.

In recent years there appeared among the people at Millard County, Utah, a strange sickness lasting from two to three weeks, and causing considerable misery to the person afflicted. It was attributed to the bite of an insect. When one case terminated fatally recently an investigation was started and the deer-fly found guilty. The disease has been identified with a plague-like disease found in the ground squirrels of California in 1911, for which preventatives have been discovered.

BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS

Many thousands of old and young keep their systems free from the dreadful consequences of constipation by taking Bliss Native Herb Tablets at regular intervals. Those who lead an active outdoor life take one occasionally while others whose work is confining and laborious and are more subject to that condition, retain their health by using them more frequently. Bliss Native Herb Tablets not only relieve constipation but stir up the liver and kidneys, cleansing them of all fermentation, and restore them to a natural healthy, active condition. They also purify the blood, and have a general tonic effect on the whole system. One tablet at night will make the next day bright.

Bliss Native Herb Tablets are put up in two sizes. The large sized box contains 300 tablets, enough to last the average family six months. Every box carries our money back guarantee. Take no substitutes. Look for trade mark on every box. Put up in two sizes $1.50 and 50c. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Made by Alonzo O. Bliss Co., Washington, D. C.

The Brunswick
ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE
The ULTONA
THE TONE AMPLIFIER
WITH GRILL REMOVED Music Lovers Choose the BRUNSWICK

MUSIC lovers choose The Brunswick Phonograph to play their favorite records, for it plays all records at their best.

The Brunswick Method of Reproduction makes this possible. It consists of two outstanding, exclusive features—The Brunswick Ultona and The Brunswick Tone Amplifier.

The Ultona

The Ultona is a scientific creation which enables one to play all records with faithful regard for the requirements of each make. It is not in any sense a combination contrivance, but involves a fundamental principle of sound reproduction.

Nor is the Ultona a complex mechanism. By a slight turn of the hand it is adapted to any make record, instantly supplying the correct position on the record, the proper needle and diaphragm and the precise pressure or weight necessary to play that particular record.

The Tone Amplifier

The Brunswick Tone Amplifier is another improvement of fundamental importance. As the name implies, it amplifies the tone, making it richer, sweeter, truer.

This vibrant tone chamber, constructed entirely of moulded hollywood, free from metal, provides the requisite resiliency that unfolds and projects true tone. Like a fine violin or the sounding board of a piano, it complies with the approved laws of acoustics.

Hear The Brunswick Before You Buy

One hearing of this remarkable instrument is enough to convince the most critical music lover that here is the final type phonograph. Come in today for demonstration.
